As always, this is subject to change. It is the company's responsibility to notify you if you will be laid off during this timeframe, not the Union.

2005-2008 Profit Sharing Grievance #118: There is no settlement at the present time. On September 26, 2022, the International Union filed charges with the NLRB against Navistar for denying information that was requested several times by the International Union. The NLRB case number is 07-CA-304439. You can go to NLRB.org and enter the case number for updates on these charges. International Union stated that since a settlement could not be reached with the company, they will be moving forward for all losses.
